MEMORIAL DAY CEREMONY TO BE HELD AT FRISCO COMMONS PARK

(May 27, 2005) Frisco's annual Memorial Day ceremony will be held at Frisco Commons – "Celebrate The Spirit" Park, 8000 McKinney Road, on Monday, May 30, beginning at 9 a.m.

One hundred flags will line the north side McKinney Road leading into the park. The city's war memorials are located past the main pavilion, near the fountain.

This year's event will feature patriotic music by the Frisco Community Band and local soloist, Ron Gentry.

Military vehicles will be on display and a "fly-over" of vintage military planes is planned.

A wreath will be laid at the memorial in honor of those who have given their life serving their country. The presentation of colors will be performed by Boy Scout Troop 298. Mayor Mike Simpson will give an address and bugler Chris Mazuk will perform Taps.

This year's ceremony is being hosted by the Frisco Garden Club and the Frisco VFW Post 8273 with help from the Frisco Rotary and the City of Frisco.

For more information, contact Jane Whitley at 972-377-2008 during the evenings.
